

was being made and get the constituents of all the Aldermen elected on the fusion ticket to use their influence to prevent any of them from being elected.

It may be said that if any of the men elected on the fusion ticket do not to Tammany they will regret it to the end of the administration, for they will be far as well as the Tammany men do in any of the actions that are going on. The Republican organization helped to elect all of these men and it is in a way responsible for what they do. President Cantor has his heart set on the formation of a powerful and respected democratic organization in the city, and he is in a position to punish any man who was elected through the influence of the decent Democrats and who now goes back on them.

Mayor Low has it in his power to punish any one of them, and he will not have any mercy on a traitor. He will punish those who are at the head of affairs think that with the publication of the statement of the Mayor they will nip in the bud any thought among fusionists of going over to the enemy.

If Tammany could obtain control of the board it would be able to do much, and little patronage out of it—not much, and hardly enough to fight over—but it would be able to annoy the administration in many ways. One of the things that the Tammany men could do would be to reduce the salaries of all those paid by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. This would annoy all of the men appointed to office by the department heads, and many others; in fact, all in the employ of the city would be annoyed, as the pay is fixed by the Legislature through the Charter.

The Tammany men have been saying for some time that they would have the organization of the board in their hands. They have said that they expected to have the assistance of the fusionists, and possibly another from Richmond, and possibly two from Brooklyn. Last evening they said that the announcement of the Mayor might have spoiled the board, and they could not tell to the board met to organize.

Alderman Matthews of the Twenty-first district is at his home recovering from an operation for appendicitis. He sent word to the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening that he would be present at the first meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday if he had to come in an ambulance to the City Hall and be carried on a stretcher to the board room. Mr. Matthews added that he did not think that this would be necessary, but that he would be there, anyhow.

"Nostis" don't," he said with a broad grin, when he was asked what had been accomplished. He was pressed for details. "It's just this," he said. "There's nothing in it. I have no idea of getting any of them fellows, and they never had any idea of our buying any of them. That's all. They're just a bunch of fellows."

Then came Alderman John T. McCall. He shook his head just as Foley had done. "Nothing," he said. "That statement of the Mayor is just a bunch of lies."

Alderman Bridges was too much troubled by Mayor Low's imputations to say anything at his usual length. He simply murmured over and over again: "That's fierce! Say, that's fierce!"

The cause elected Alderman John T. McCall as leader and determined to present the name of Thomas Coakley to the membership of the board. He was not a fusionist, but he was a Democrat, and he was a member of the board. He was a member of the board, and he was a member of the board. He was a member of the board, and he was a member of the board.

PARTRIDGE FEELING HIS WAY.

NO SENSATIONAL SHAKE-UP OF POLICE ON HIS PROGRAMME.

Changes by Degrees, and the Commissioner is Learning Things Meanwhile From Cortright. "The Honest Cop"—Captains Moved—Job for Valleys.

Commissioner Partridge intends to make changes in the Police Department by degrees. There will be no sensational shaking up, as, for instance, transferring ten or twenty captains in a bunch. Col. Partridge says he will make every effort to avoid sensationalism in that respect. Everything will be done quietly but surely, and when the Colonel has the department rearranged as he thinks it should be, then he will be prepared to let it stand on its merits.

One of the first things the new Commissioner did yesterday was to undo one of the last acts of the transfer bureau under the Murphy-Devery administration by moving Edward Walsh from the City Hall to West Chester; Capt. Thorne S. Copeland from East Sixty-ninth street to the City Hall; Capt. Stephen Brown from West Chester to East Sixty-seventh street; Sgt. John H. Russell from West Sixty-eighth street and Detective Sergeant Valleys from the Detective Bureau to the Police Department.

The announcement of all the transfers was made by Senior Inspector Cortright, "the honest cop," who, apparently, is performing the duties of chief of police while the new Commissioner is in the department. Cortright is constantly in communication with Col. Partridge and Col. Thurston. His advice is sought on most matters which come up for consideration and is listened to with respect. In announcing the transfer of the captains yesterday he said that they were "for the good of the service and the good of the men." Then he added:

"Capt. Walsh is the man who was transferred several times, it was said, at the request of Street Cleaning Commissioner Nagle. He has been put back in his old precinct. The East Sixty-ninth street precinct is a very important one. There are a great number of wealthy people living in it and it needs a young, active man in charge. Capt. Brown, who was in that precinct up to a few days ago, is a young man. He is the man for the place. Capt. Copeland is an old man."

There was no surprise expressed when it became known that Sgt. Sugden, to whom Deputy Commissioner Devery was so good, had been removed from Col. Thurston's office. The headquarters of the notorious unofficial "transfer bureau" was in Devery's outer office.

Col. Thurston said that he had selected Sgt. Russell with Col. Partridge's approval. He will take Sugden's place. He is well liked. When Col. Partridge was in the city, he was in command of the West Sixty-eighth street station. Detective Sergeant Valleys has the reputation of being one of the best detectives on the force. He has hitherto been assigned to the State cap every year. There he met Col. Thurston, who recognized his ability. Last summer he was in charge of the detectives at the Buffalo Exposition. At other times he has done similar work.

Commissioner Partridge decided yesterday that Col. Thurston will have as his district Manhattan, the Bronx and Richmond, and that he will have as his district Queens, the Bronx and Richmond. Devery formerly ruled everything except Brooklyn, which, by agreement, was left to the charge of "Barney" McCall.

There is a great deal of interest as to whether or not Capt. Titus will be retained as Chief of Detectives. He has been in the position for a long time, and he has been very successful. He has been in the position for a long time, and he has been very successful. He has been in the position for a long time, and he has been very successful.

John McCullagh, the Superintendent of Elections, was one of the men who were transferred yesterday. He said, when told of the transfer of the captains in the morning, that the commanders were gradually going back to the police they had in the hands of the Roosevelt board. He remarked that then Capt. Sheehan was in the Tenthredin, and Capt. Brown in East Sixty-seventh street and Capt. Sheehan in the Tenthredin.

Col. Partridge said that he had been told that Col. Thurston would have as his district Manhattan, the Bronx and Richmond, and that he will have as his district Queens, the Bronx and Richmond. LOW FOR EFFICIENCY FIRST.

The New Mayor Holds It More Immediately Important Than Economy.

Mayor Low was asked yesterday how much he expected to reduce the budget for this year from the figures fixed by the Tammany Board of Estimate and Apportionment. The Mayor smiled at the question.

"It is not possible to tell," said he. "That is a matter that we must consider. Efficiency is more to be considered than saving, and will be considered first."

None of the city officers was pleased with the reports set in circulation on Thursday that they were going to cut off the budget $10,000,000 on a clip. Still new in their surroundings they are by no means sure yet that they will be able to make any saving. What the members of the administration fear is that the people who have not given close study to the affairs of the city will get the idea that it is possible for them to walk into a department and take it all to pieces in a minute, and then to replace the pieces without disturbing the public business.

All the heads of departments will submit lists of their employees at the meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment on Monday, and the recommendations that they have to make. These lists and recommendations will be considered by the Mayor and the others in authority when they get to take action.

Comptroller Grout said that he was not prepared to even hazard a guess as to the probable amount of the annual saving which would be obtained by abolishing useless offices. "I am not prepared to make any statement of specific instances of extravagance," said he, "but I am led to understand that within the last four years the increases in the number of employees and in the salaries of the old employees has added $2,500,000 to the city's expenses. What we are now bent upon ascertaining is whether or not those increases were necessary. If they were not the useless positions will be abolished immediately and the salaries will be so graded that no employee will be paid more than the worth of his labor. But there is no intention to cripple the public service by sweeping the city blindly."

John R. Sparrow, an expert accountant attached to the Comptroller's office was assigned yesterday by Mr. Grout to make a systematic examination of the books of the Department of Assessments and Arrears. It was in this department that Charles P. Clipp, who robbed the city of $30,000 was employed as bookkeeper.

Comptroller Grout on behalf of the city, borrowed $2,000,000 yesterday. Of this amount $1,000,000 was loaned by Adolph Lewisohn through W. N. Coler & Co.; $1,000,000 by the National City Bank and $500,000 through the Fifth Avenue Bank. The money was borrowed on revenue bonds at rates varying from 4½ to 4½ per cent. Such loans are always obtained at such low rate of the year. Mr. Grout explained. "The taxes are not payable until October and in consequence in the earlier months of the year the city is obliged to borrow money."

Mayor Low received two delegations yesterday. One of them was from the newboys who sell papers in City Hall Park. It consisted of two little boys with their fathers, one of them Herman Doctor and the other Dennis Hirsch. Sgt. Kennel escorted them into the office of the Mayor, where they were greeted with a handshake.

"How would you like to be Mayor, Dennis?" asked Mr. Low.

"Huh!" said Dennis. "I'd rather be a cop."

The other delegation was from Brooklyn and it wanted to have the Mayor endorse ex-Councilman Francisco for Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner for Brooklyn. Charles Heed was at the head of the delegation and after he came out of the office he said that the Mayor had said that if Commissioner Woodbury wanted to appoint Mr. Francisco to any office he had no objection. Mr. Low is not interfering with the appointments that his Commissioners make.

All of the departments of the city and borough governments will be open to the public eight hours a day hereafter. The hours are from 9 o'clock in the morning to 4 in the afternoon, but under the administration of Mayor Low and President Cantor every one will have to work eight hours a day.

ROW AMONG POLICE JUSTICES.

FIGHT PROBABLE IN BROOKLYN THIS MORNING.

Van Wyck Appointees, Acting on a Decision of Marcan's, Spend the Night in Their Courts Prepared to Repel Men Declared to Be Illegally Elected.

Supreme Court Justice Marcan in Brooklyn handed down a decision vacating the temporary injunction obtained by Police Magistrates Dooley and Furlong, who were appointed by Mayor Van Wyck, restraining Walter L. Durack, Raymond B. Ingensoll, Charles L. Devery, William Kramer, William Watson, William Brenner and J. Lott Nostrand, from assuming the duties of Magistrates, to which offices they were elected in November last. The petitioners alleged that the law under which the defendants were elected was unconstitutional.

Justice Marcan rules that the election of Police Magistrates was void as the law was unconstitutional, but that the petitioners did not bring the proper action, and that for that reason he had to vacate the injunction. Justice Marcan says: "The election of City Magistrates in November, 1901, was void, and the defendants then elected have no title to the offices. Notwithstanding this, action cannot be maintained, and the motion must be denied. The plaintiffs, except in their capacity as taxpayers, have no right to lay the foundation of an action by them for its enforcement or protection."

"The incumbent of an office, when he is attacked therein, may and should, as a duty, defend his position against usurpation, but he is not to be put to the test of the people's right, only, and only the people can actively invoke the power of the court to that end."

The newly-elected Magistrates will take their seats in court this morning, and then the Magistrate appointed by Mayor Van Wyck will apply to the Attorney-General to begin quo warranto proceedings in the Supreme Court to declare void the election of the Magistrates who were elected in November last.

Magistrates Dooley, Furlong, Higgins, both and O'Brien, who were appointed by Mayor Van Wyck, and the election of Messrs. Devery, Kramer, Watson, Brenner and J. Lott Nostrand, who were elected in November last, will be in possession of their respective courts last night. who turned to Magistrate Naumer and said:

"You'll find that you will have a very lively time trying to elect me."

Magistrate Naumer looked around the court room and found many of Magistrate Devery's friends. He reconsidered his determination to elect the latter and putting on his coat left the court room, remarking: "I'll come back in the morning."

"Will be glad to see you," was Magistrate Devery's parting shot.

"Oh," said Magistrate J. Lott Nostrand, one of the recently elected Magistrates, "I will go to the City Hall and hold court in the morning and hold court. There will be no trouble. Everything will be pleasant. These other fellows are all right and are not in the least such bad men as they would have some people imagine. It comes pretty hard to give up a good job; it simply means that they are dying hard."

Magistrate James G. Tighe of the Butler street court, when he heard of the action taken by his colleagues said: "Well, where do I come in? I can't fight myself. I was appointed and elected, and I guess I'll go home and get a good sleep."
